Every available bell will ring, chiming sound out and whistles and sirens blow to four minutes at 1:00 o'clock Saturday, July 4, as our community joins in the meaningful nationwide observance of Independence Day.

Headline the LET FREEDOM RING program locally is Joyce president Milton McKay. The Jaycees are urging that all citizens display their flags at home or at places of business (Saturday).

Joining in the Bell Ringing ceremony will be the First Baptist Church, Everglades Presbyterian and the Episcopal church. The fire siren at City Hall will add support and Mr. A. P. Halbrook will lead the ringing of his store bell. Others were still

One Or Two Houses

By Rep. Emmett S. Roberts

Historically, local state government in these United States has for the most part followed the pattern established by the Congress with one House of a State Legislature reflecting population, and usually the other reflecting area. For this reason Delaware and Alaska, two small populated states, have the same representation in the United States Senate as New York or California.

The recent decision of United States Supreme Court says that local government representation will be based on population alone. If this be the case one might well ask "Why continue to have a Senate and a House of Representatives since both bodies will represent the majority and therefore no need exists for area representation."

The bi-cameral system of State Legislatures with both Senate and a House of Representatives is the system used by 49 of our 50 states. One state, Nebraska, has the uni-cameral system with only one House composing the state legislature. Very little has been said over the years about how well this uni-cameral body has worked. Apparently it has satisfied the people of Nebraska, since the makeup is based on population.

Florida Corn Growers Enter 2nd Year Of Volunteer Marketing Control

The Florida Sweet Corn Advisory Committee which operates by appointment of Commissioner of Agriculture Doyle Conner who is given the legal administrative role under the Florida act, met Tuesday at the Glades Courthouse to review the first year's operation and to consider proposals to growers for the second year.

Glades County Agent John Causey believes that the operation of the self-administered corn business kept the low prices within a two weeks' period.

Chairman Lewis Field appointed a committee to consider the applications of 27 new growers and to make recommendations

Missourians Study Glades Marketing

Seven members of the Missouri Legislature, composing a study committee on marketing problems in agriculture, visited in Belle Glade Monday.

A tour of Glades Sugar House was arranged by William Miller, general manager, and the group viewed sugar cane fields in all stages of growth, as well as field preparations prior to planting.

Accompanied by members of their families, the group included the Glades in their 2,600 mile study trip.

Briefed by Asst. County Agent John H. Causey, they were told that "Palm Beach County has more sugar cane acreage than any county in the nation," and also that our county shipped $65 million worth of vegetables last year.

Mr. George H. Wedgast, president of the Sugar Cane Co-operative, using a series of colored photos, outlined sugar growing in the Glades step by step, from field preparation through harvesting and mill processing into molasses and raw sugar. He explained to the group that sugar cane acreage has more than tripled in four years and there are now some 175,000 acres in sugar cane in the Glades.

Wedgast also discussed Glades vegetable production and marketing procedures.

What Happened To Our Bridge?

Rumors that test piling for the 5th Street bridge were not correct and the plan must be redesigned, were confirmed Wednesday by George R. Frost County Engineer in West Palm Beach.

"While this is true, that is not the holdup on construction," he said. "The contractor, Capetelli Bros., Inc. of Hialeah are waiting on fill from Pahokee airport stockpiles, which must be dried before it can be measured."

The contractor had the election of hauling fill from the Airport stockpile or finding a closer location, Frost explained. A half million cubic yards is now being stockpiled in three areas by the Hendry Company at the airport location. At least five or six jobs in the Glades are waiting to draw fill from the airport piling.

These Glades projects are part of the county's $15 million dollar bond road program covering 28 jobs, the engineer announced.

S. B. Water Plant Contract Awarded

Roemer Construction Company was awarded the contract for phase two of South Bay's water plant by a vote of the city commission at their last Thursday night meeting.

Roemer's bid for $244,688.00 was favor over the nine other entries on a basis of a 200 day completion date from signing of the contract, the commission announced.

Ralph Ward was appointed new South Bay Police Chief to fill the unexpired term of former Chief Marvin Davis. Davis, under grand-jury indictment on gambling charges, was fired by the commission.

Cost is only $1.00 per plate, for adults or children, and proceeds will go to help the Chamber of Commerce defray the expense of the fireworks, or to the Lions Sight Conservation Fund.

Pahokee High School Band under the direction of Robert O. Lampi, will lead a parade which will form at the City Hall at 1:30. Veterans, Scout troops, and other organizations will march in the parade, according to Mayor Duncan Padgett who is organizing this phase of the celebration.

Anyone fishing, picnicking, or just traveling near the St. Lucie Canal in the Port Mayaca area last Sunday, would have thought World War III had started. Actually, it was the local National Guard Unit, the 1048th Transportation Platoon, on a training exercise. This drill dubbed "Operation Cobra," was held to better acquaint our local Guardsmen with guerrilla and antiguerrilla warfare.

It all started at 7:00 A. M. when six of the men, designated to be the guerrillas reached the battlefield. They immediately began setting up roadblocks, booby traps, mortar positions, and digging in operations. When the rest of the contingent arrived, they were attacked, forced to find cover and return the fire, until the roadblock could be cleared.

Throughout the day, the battle raged on, with only an occasional break for a class or briefing, and a half hour for Concession stands will be set up on the waterfront by the Boy Scouts, the Jaycees and other organizations.

Most stores will be closed all day. Saturday in Pahokee, according to Mrs. Lillian Padgett, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Climaxing the day's program will be the big fireworks display out over the lake at the waterfront, which will begin at dark. This annual event has provided entertainment for the entire Glades area for several years. It is well to arrive a bit early to be assured of parking, officials reminded.

A Pahokee City ordinance prohibits individual use of firecrackers or any other kind of fireworks. Police Chief Leon Guthrie warns. Some people were injured last year and in previous years by indiscriminate firing of firecrackers in the crowd. "We are going to see that it doesn't happen this year," the Chief said.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Read Galatians 3: 19-29

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. (John 8:36)

When the traffic light falls at a busy intersection, one sees vehicles lined up in all directions. Cars inch forward, no driver sure of what the others are going to do. There are near collisions. Brakes screech. After watching something like this, or being in the midst of this kind of a traffic jam, we complain less about traffic lights.

Freedom is everyday life means adjustment and harmony with rational laws and regulations. It is quite as true in our relationship with God. Living apart from Him may give the illusion of liberty, but such independence really curtails our freedom and self-fulfillment. To come to the best in life, we need the direction and guidance that God gives us through Christ.

We have the greatest liberty in our lives when we walk with God, responding to Him as He speaks to us through His Word and in the workings of His Spirit.

PRAYER: Father, forgive us our sins. Teach us that harmony in our spiritual life and peace in dealing with others comes when we are in close relationship with Thee. May we walk with Thee today. In Christ name, Amen.

Feeding Trees

Fertilizing trees is aimed at putting nutrients where they need the most good. For trees 100 square feet of canopy in diameter, punch holes under the entire canopy 12 inches deep at 18-inch intervals and apply three pounds of a garden fertilizer in the holes. Two applications per year are recommended. One now and another in the fall.

For trees larger than six inches in trunk diameter, apply five pounds per tree.

For azaleas, camellias, crosos, hibiscus, gardenias, shrubs and other ornamental plants, make four applications per year. Apply one to one and one half pounds of fertilizer to each square foot of planting area. Winter and early spring. The late spring application is due now. Water plants, spread the plant nutrients, and then water the plant food material.

Azaleas and camellias need special acid type fertilizer, so be sure to feed them the right formula or they may become fertilizer sick.

Annuals and perennials need three applications of one to one half pounds of 6-6 fertilizer.

A Thought From The Bible Let's Keep Our Motto

"In God We Trust"

By Lewis Llewellyn

"In God will I praise Him. In God have I put my trust. I will not be afraid what man can do unto me."

Recently in New York State an attempt was made to have the words "under God" removed from the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States. The move was ejected by the court.

This is encouraging but it would be much more encouraging if we could have confidence that such a move would also be rejected by the Supreme Court. It is taken to the nation's highest tribunal.

When we are in danger of forgetting the foundation on which our nation was established? "Them that honor Me I will honor," God says, "and they that despise Me shall be lightly esteemed."

In times of trouble, we always want God to be on our side. But are we sure that we are on God's side at the time. Let us continue, as a nation and as individuals, to have as our motto, not only on our coins but in our hearts, "In God we trust."

Psalm 56: 10, 11.

WALDO & GARDEN

By Hervey Sharpe, Editor Florida Agricultural Extension Service

Controlling weeds with chemicals is easier than dancing the polka because it takes only one turn. This is the turn of a spray nozzle.

Chemical weed control adds a touch of professionalism to the task once performed by the hoe. It requires less work and little or no sweat.

But don't become overconfident in using the chemicals. This could spell doom to beautiful ornamentals as well as the undesirable plants.

Growth regulators such as 2, 4-D, 2, 4, 5-T, and MYP, even in very small amounts, may injure susceptible plants. These materials are weed killers. But remember, they do not distinguish between weeds and non-weeds.

Do not apply 2, 4-D within several feet of sensitive plants — such as most garden plants, flowers and ornamentals. Cover flowers and shrubs with paper or plastic before spraying. Use extreme care to prevent the chemical from reaching ornamentals through drifting, leaching into the soil or by running on the surface during a heavy shower of rain.

Apply weed killers on a calm day because wind-blown chemicals can injure plants all over the neighborhood.

Even on calm days use low pressure — 20 to 40 pounds per square inch — and nozzles with large opening that put out coarse sprays rather than fine mists.

Before using any chemical, read the label carefully and follow the instructions on the chemical container.

DRIVE CAREFULLY DURING THE HOLIDAYS

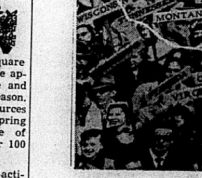

Another day of your self-activity is taking care of gladioli that are through blooming at this time.

Actually, when the tips begin to yellow and die back, it is time to dig the bulbs and prepare them for storage. New corns grow on top of old ones, so break off and throw away the old corns and store the new ones.

Prior to storing the new corns, dry them first in an open dry and shady place for about a week. Eight weeks before replanting place the corns in wire refrigerator and plant immediately upon taking them out of refrigeration.

Gladioli will grow without refrigeration but if not given cool storage treatment they produce irregular growth and erratic blooming.

It will soon be dig-and-store time. Irises do not need to be placed in cold storage, but the large, clumped bulbs should be broken into individual parts and old and new bulbs stored in a cool place in readiness for fall planting.

WONDERFUL PRIVILEGE

We are proud of our freedom... whether it be freedom of speech, freedom of assembly (the eyes have it), freedom of the press, or freedom of religion. Of all these, we sing: "Let freedom ring!"

Freedom of religion is not the property of the clergy, but of all the people. Every schoolboy knows that the Constitution says so. It guarantees freedom of worship... freedom to honor God according to one's own conscience. It is a precious gift.

How you worship is your business! That you must worship, ah, that's God's business! Choose the church to honor God with your fellowman... thanking God for this wonderful privilege. For, so often in other lands, such worship is forbidden and outlawed. Sunday is His day! Make it your day!

Who's Who In The Glades

Here Are Some Of BG's Farm Team Little Leaguers

Geneva Little

This well known citizen of Belle Glade is referred to by many friends as Geneva and few are playing so active a part in the friendly business standpoint.

A large part of the success of Geneva's Drive In at 618 S.W. 16 St., we believe is due to Mrs. Geneva Little's wonderful faculty for making friends and winning the esteem of her customers. It is perhaps because she takes an interest in other people and appreciates the patronage extended her restaurant.

During the time that she has operated Geneva's Drive In she has been keenly observed and alert to the condition and needs of the community and has taken a pronounced and well poised position in matters affecting the welfare of this section.

The area is indeed fortunate to have such a quality person as a key figure in its business life, and there is no better assurance of continued prosperity and growth for the area than to have friendly business people like Geneva Little.

C. L. Stuart

Throughout the years Mr. C. L. Stuart has served the people of the Glades and time has become his friend. They like him as a person and do not hesitate to commend Stuart's Farm Service at Canal Point. Even so, he does not depend upon the good will of the community for his success, but continually improving proves the facilities to afford better service.

Knowing that today's more complex farm equipment and tractors need better service, Mr. Stuart provides special tools and the latest equipment to expedite the work of the repairman. That is why they say that if it can't be repaired at Stuart's Machine Shop it's better to junk it.

This man has, through hard work and honest dealings gained the respect and goodwill of the community so his diligence in striving so hard to uphold this good reputation deserves our acclaim. Just as a nation is kept strong by honoring down community so a community's well-being is determined by the calibre of its business establishments and we place this Oliver Tractor dealer high on the list of those doing more than their share along these lines.

Bob Davis

Today, as in our pioneer past, progress is made by men who refuse to be satisfied with time bygone years. Mr. Bob Davis of Bob Davis Buick-Rambler at 304 S. Main, deserves the highest praise for being on the job with everything it takes. Specialized training plus the equipment and talent needed to serve you swiftly, accurately and economically.

Mr. Davis, has worked hard to keep astride with the tremendous advancements in the automobile industry and is continually adding services as customer needs increase. He is not only aware of responsibility to his customers but to the community as well and cooperatively works together with the good citizens that aim to make our home-town a happy and prosperous place today and tomorrow.

Just as the history of the community is one of continued advances so is the progress report of Bob Davis Buick-Rambler and Bob is to be commended for the efficient combination assures prosperity for both.

Lelia English

An eminent figure in the world of business is Lelia English of the Pahokee Restaurant, at 137 E. Main, and the Travelers Restaurant, in the Bus Station at Canal Point. She has become highly regarded in the area.

Despite her full business life, she has continually performed numerous roles in community affairs, ever sincerely alert to aid in solving civic problems.

The Pahokee Restaurant and the Travelers Restaurant have become synonymous with the finest in food and service and people have come to look to these establishments for the very best and the assurance that they are receiving the finest available foods, cooked to perfection.

Lelia English has accumulated a following of discriminating clientele who admire her type of business management and are eager to praise her endeavors. She has earned the loyalty of her friends and has attained her position in the community because she has responded quickly to the task of becoming a better than average citizen in a better than average community.

Paul Davidson

A businessman that offers a service to the general public must have a certain extra ability and perceptiveness in his mode of operation, for the intangible may only be sold by man's ingenuity or by past records. Therefore Mr. Paul Davidson of Cabin Dry Cleaners at 246 Ave. A is a man who has proved he can very successfully operate this business and should receive special acclaim. Establishing his business with a basic foundation of offering the very best in Dry Cleaning on all fabrics including the new miral fabrics at the lowest possible price to realize a fair and honest profit, has proved to be a route to success and has built a business to which the community can point with pride.

Although not ostentatious in his contribution to civic ventures, Paul can always be depended upon to contribute to any plan for over-all city advancement.

We congratulate Paul Davidson for his contribution to progress by being a good business man and for being a good citizen.

Rashley's Edges City Products 1-0, For Share Of League Lead

Ed Benson bested Jim Harlan in a tense pitching duel as Rashley's edged City Products 1-0 Sunday afternoon. Benson did not allow a hit as he won his second league game without a loss for Rashley's. Harlan gave up only a first inning single to Earl Vann as he suffered his first loss against two victories. The loss dropped City Products one-half game behind Rashley's and the Loxahatchee Prison Farm who did not play over the weekend.

Rashley's scored the game's only run in the top of the first inning when Tiny Rogers worked Harlan for a walk to make a 2-2 pitch, moved to second on a wild pitch, and scored when Vann dropped the game's only hit into left field. Benson made the run stand up as he pitched the league's first no-hitter, walking four and striking out three batters. Leftfielder Jerry Parson saved Benson's no-hitter twice in the first inning when he raced in to make a short string catch of Alvy Early's soft liner that looked like it might drop for a hit, he then went back to the fence to haul in Nick Collins' long fly that could have gone for a hit. Junior Rio knocked down a smash by Harlan in the second inning and threw him out on the only outfield ball hit in the contest. Benson's no-hitter. Benson and the Loxahatchee Prison Farm were the only teams to play over the weekend.

Other league action saw Geneva's stay just one game off the pace as they rode the bats of Willie Lee and Frank Davis to an 18-7 comeback victory over the winless Belle Glade Fugitives. Lee banged two doubles driving in four runs and his team made Davis sprang three singles driving in five runs. Frank Kruse went four-for-three to regain the league's batting lead as his average went to .583. Phil Bonnell pitched a five-hitter and hit a home run for his friends, while leading City Products to a 10-3 win over Bryant U. S. S. C. Billy Rogers Farms managed to hang on for a 14-15 win over the Sugar Mill to pass them in the standings as Homer Frasure won his second game.

THE AMAZING HISTORY OF ROCKING CHAIR WHISKEY

Ever since, men have looked for easier ways to duplicate this discovery. Farmers in Kentucky used to put kegs of whiskey in their Model T's and drive 20,000 bumpy miles before they judged it fit to drink. Further North, inventive whiskey fanciers rode kelp to tops of trees, so winds blowing up from Cape Haze could do the work for them.

In money. With only one house and that restricted in size, thousands of dollars could be saved in legislative sessions.

There is no doubt that many states will be giving serious consideration to the uni-camera system in the coming days. The large urban centers for many years have fought strongly for more representation. Growth problems have brought on the need for legislation to aid large cities and counties. Rural areas with legislative control have resisted and denied urban relief.

There is, however, basically the feeling that checks and balances are a part of our system of government and that in spite of some problems, it is desirable to exercise some restraint in government.

Florida's legislature today is in the position of not knowing whether it is legally constituted or not. The new reappointment formula to be voted on in November has been declared unconstitutional, and a special session of the legislature must be called prior to the 1965 session to determine its membership.

In these days of change and confusion, the citizens of this country need to educate themselves on the daily events that transpire, and above all take part in all elections.

Hold fast to your basic beliefs... don't rock the boat... but do let your voice be heard.

We Need More Of The Spirit Of...

Their rallying cry was the stirring ultimatum of Patrick Henry: "Give me liberty or give me death!"... their signal, "the shot heard 'round the world," a spirit that has since transcended the times that nurtured it, and the nation that gave it birth. It is a spirit that is timeless and universal, the essence of man's need to be free and the master of his destiny. This spirit of 1776 won independence for the American colonies and forged them into a great Nation; it lives on in 1964, in the hearts of all men who love freedom, everywhere.

Army Engineers To Open New Lock July 6, On Caloosahatchee River

Boat traffic on the Caloosahatchee River will begin using the new $3.6 million navigation lock at Olga on July 6, it was announced today by Major George L. Harman, deputy district engineer for the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The 56-foot wide and 400-foot long navigation lock is a part of a multimillion dollar improvement of the Caloosahatchee River as a floodway channel for the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Project. Improvement of the channel and construction of the lock ties in with the Army Engineers program to raise the dikes around Lake Okeechobee in order to preserve greater quantities of water in the liquid heart of the 18-county flood control project. Improvement of the Caloosahatchee River channel will permit the Army Engineers to better regulate the lake and get rid of floodwaters.

Army Engineers Albert R. Broadfoot of Clewiston, who is in charge of operation of the completed flood control project, said the contractor will begin closing the by-pass channel around the lock site on July 6 and all boat traffic will be required to use the new navigation lock after that date. Hours of operation for the lock will be from 6 a. m. until 8 p. m. seven days a week. The lift of the new lock will be 3.2 feet, Broadfoot said.

The lockmaster will be Clyde Gayle, formerly of the St. Lucie Lock.

Major Harman said all boat traffic navigating the waterway should use caution in approaching the lock and should await a signal from the lockmaster.

Mr. Ora R. Smith, teacher, is now also an instructor in the summer program. He is experienced in this phase of work, having been on the program year before last.

Contracts have been awarded by the Corps of Engineers previously for enlarging the Caloosahatchee River channel from the vicinity of Beautiful Island near Fort Myers to a point near Fort Denaud, a distance of about 24 miles. Work under another contract for improvement of the Ortona Lock Spillway has been completed. Enlargement of the section of the river from Fort Denaud to LaBelle and construction of a spillway at the Moore Haven Lock to eliminate discharge of floodwaters through the lock, are scheduled to get underway later this year, Major Harman said.

The new floodway Channel will be about 24 feet deep and 150 to 250 feet wide when completed.

However, Army Engineers point out that the controlling depth for vessels using the Okeechobee Waterway from Ft. Myers on the West Coast to

Florida Corn Growers

In the week ending Feb. 23rd following the freeze, approximately 5,000 acres of corn were planted for harvest around the first of May, thus producing a glut supply.

The Committee has determined that a minimum price of $1.84 per crate is necessary for a "break-even" to the farmer. Prices last season for the corn sold averaged between $2.00 and $2.50.

While a maximum marketable goal of 8,200,000 crates are anticipated for the year 64-65, a basic figure of 7,374,339 is used in making allocations to farmers, with an anticipated 368,717 "new entrance" to be allowed the 27 new grower-applicants.

In a two, weeks period during the high month of May this season 41,000 crates were shipped, with Floridians consuming only 6,855 crates.

Rogers Says British Aid To Castro Boomerangs

Congressman Paul Rogers today told the House today Britain to prohibit trade and shipping to Cuba. Each month, for example, the number of vessels flying the British flag into Cuba is significantly higher than those of our other allies.

"Yet most of our other allies have either stopped shipping to Cuba, or given assurances that they will stop in the near future. But we have received no such signs from Britain. In fact, British officials have in some cases indicated the contrary, despite strong indications of displeasure from the President himself."

The Florida Congressman then quoted latest intelligence estimates of ship traffic to Cuba, saying that 58 British vessels had called in Castro's ports between March and June 12 of this year. He noted that reports also showed 60 Russian ships going to Cuba during May and early June.

"The only practical way to keep the island of Cuba supplied is by ship," Rogers said. "When a British ship goes into Cuba it just means one less the Russians have to send."

The Congressman pointed out that British Guiana's Cheddi Jagan is an open Castro admirer, and like Castro, claims himself to be Marxist. Rogers then said that Castro was obviously working with Jagan, and proof could be found in the recent arms smuggling between Cuba and British Guiana through the tiny neighboring Dutch territory of Surinam, which has just called the Dutch Navy for help to halt such traffic.

June.

"There is a situation which clearly threatens the British interests in this hemisphere," Congressman Rogers stated. "England is now in a position where further assistance to Castro only boomerangs against its own policies."

Rogers concluded by urging that Britain end not only its Cuban shipping, but trade with Castro as well. Recalling the sale of buses to Cuba, the Con-

Army ROTC Cadet Darlene M. Granberry, 21, whose wife, Hayward, lives in Belle Glade, Fla., began six weeks of intensive military training at Fort Bragg, N. C., June 13.

During the training Reserve Officer Training Corps Cadets are called upon to prove their leadership ability and demonstrate knowledge of military subjects on this testing ground for future U. S. Army Officers.

Cadet Granberry is participating in the ROTC program at Auburn University, Auburn, Ala.

John T. Gilson, interior communications technician second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Gilson of 101 Southwest, Avenue "F," Belle Glade, Fla., participated aboard the Navy attack cargo ship USS Seminole in a combined sea-assault and airborne combat training exercise called "LIGTAS" May 12 to June 10 under the direction of the South-East Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) in the Philippines.

"LIGTAS," meaning "Saved" or "Rescued" in the Philippines language, was sponsored by the United States and hosted by the Republic of the Philippines.

All member nations participated in the exercise which was part of a SEATO general counter-offensive to be used if an "enemy" should invade South-East Asia and gain control. The exercise tested the effectiveness of the SEATO forces to assault and regain control of areas behind the "enemy" advance.

The operation was designed to train allied forces in the planning and execution of this type of assault. Closer working relationships and understanding among member nations was an important objective of this training.

"LIGTAS," the second training exercise this year and the 27th since 1956, was part of a long-term schedule announced by SEATO Headquarters in November 1963, to maintain joint military defense.

What Truly Free People Can Do...

At the Cornerstone Laying Ceremonies for Belle Glade new hospital, Dr. James Borden O'Keefe, Past District Deputy Grand Master, said:

"Luther Jones said that they first would take eastern Europe, then the masses of Asia and finally encircle the United States, that last bastion of capitalism, where they would not have to attack but which would fall into THEIR hands like an over-ripe fruit."

"How little he knew what TRULY free people can do. He didn't dream that men and women of good will could unite and build such a building as this one started here today. That people would give freely of time and money to make this possible... YES, AND EVEN VOTE TO TAX THEMSELVES to accomplish their aims. How little did he understand that our traditions do not mean stagnation, but rather that they mean progress... especially so when that tradition means building."

He cited the long struggle that has brought the medical and nursing professions to the present day, when "We live in a world where great scientific and technological advances are being made and our progressive traditions are aiding us through this changing world."

"Certainly, the tests and the knowledge gained in our efforts in the conquest of space must inevitably lead to a brighter world of the future."

Our Masonic and Medical traditions mean that we are constantly striving toward that ultimate perfection when man shall have a clean mind and a healthy body."

125 YEARS YOUNG

Many students of political trend in the United States today say that people are forgetting that this country was built by the ingenuity and effort of individuals working under the incentives of a free society. They say that we are turning away from our history toward subservience to central state authority and the mediocrity of welfare. But it is well to remember that in this country a majority of the people by their vote, and by the informed interest that they take in government, may still determine the kind of country we are to have. It is well to remember that that opportunity is not yet gone, not by any means. The individual with a good idea can still succeed, and the surest way to build a great business is still founded on the ability to recognize a public need better than the public does.

This year marks the 125th anniversary of America's unique and distinctive express freight business. The express business started in 1839 when William Harnden began carrying packages between Boston and New York. There was need for a shipping organization which would take the responsibility for handling small packages and bundles and see to it that they arrived safely at their final destination. The carpet bag was soon replaced by a railroad car coupled behind the engine where express cars are still found in passenger trains today. The modern REA Express has its roots in the roots deep in the history of this country and the names of its forerunners are woven into the story of our westward development. The course of the gold rush and California development would have been for different without such express companies as Wells Fargo. And the short lived Pony Express, although a financial failure, wrote stirring chapters into the story of transportation development. The modern REA Express, with top total reorganization on a world-wide basis continues, await the enterprise dedicated to giving increasingly better and greater service to the public.

BOATING SEASON

The boating season is here again. And good manners and common sense can prevent most of the accidents that have marred past years. The American Medical Association offers some simple rules: Don't overload the boat; have life preservers for each occupant; don't stand up or change seats in a small boat while underway; keep a watchful eye out for other boats, swimmers and fishermen, and give all a comfortably wide berth.

UNCLE DAN from DOOLIE says:

Dear Mister Editor:
The fellers at the country store Saturday night was making some big decisions on a number of important items.
First off, Ed Doolie ask for the floor to make a few remarks about the kind of mail service we was now getting from them also in last week's issue. He reported he had went to town Saturday afternoon to buy a stamp and the dunderhead clerk closed. Ed is mighty touchy about these matters when the Democrats was in power. Under the Republic he would call it real economy.

Attention: Uncle Dan and Luther Jones
Gentlemen:
In the Herald of June 25, 1964, received here today, and the letters of "Uncle Dan" were not found. Such letters, with more examples than most any expert, were greatly missed here and the value of your paper has not been what it was previously during these last two weeks. If Uncle Dan will come back soon, after merely taking a vacation, will be all right, but without him your paper would certainly not be the same value. You have been getting more serious in a fancy way, but let's hope you are not trying to get respect by being just another dreary and doleful paper, like so many others.
Your truly,
Thomas A. Kurtz

"Too Late To Classify"

Editor's note: Daily a large majority of Americans express the general opinion on world affairs expressed by Russell Kirt's column.
What is back of it all? Might communistic term-style activity be stronger within our ranks than is generally recognized? On this Independence Day consideration and appreciation of our freedoms is uppermost in every American's mind. Guarding and keeping those freedoms is imperative. Let each American give thought to the responsibilities involved in KEEPING AMERICA FREE.

The older I get I realize that the more I think I know the less I understand. I have been listening to national and international double talk until I am going around in circles like a satellite.

I listen to the radio and television, read the newspapers and occasionally listen to a speech by a so-called expert and the more I see and hear the more confused I become.

America is the most powerful nation on earth according to one informant and another tells me we are ready to fall apart, and if we don't get a shot in the arm we are sunk.

The nation's brains and brass gallop off to Viet Nam every few weeks and come home to tell us that we are winning the war and everything is coming up roses and before I can light my pipe and sit back with a feeling of security another delegate returns from afar and tells me that we are in a first class hell of a fix and there is not much we can do about it.

A well informed speaker tells me that Russia is so weak she is about to topple and another screams that she is more powerful than at any time in her history and we better watch our step.

Press dispatches indicate that Castro is getting his little pink cars knocked down and we don't have a worry about him much longer and then another with inside information tells me that we got no more chance of knocking Castro off than we have of pacifying General DeGaulle.

I don't have a crystal ball and wouldn't know what to do with it if I had one, but it seems to me that if we continue to feed and support our enemies and supply them with aid and comfort at the taxpayers expense in the hope that they will show their appreciation by marching shoulder-to-shoulder with us when the chips are down we are kidding ourselves into a coma that we will never come out of.

I used to think that Santa Claus was a guy in a red suit with white whiskers but of late I have decided that he is a long, lean, lanky individual with striped trousers and a tall hat who is a sucker for anybody who even acts like they might tolerate him as much as he comes into the picture with his packages.

Apparently the only thing this country has learned to do is pay the bills, no matter who owes them or how much. We still assume that the nations of the world retain a sense of appreciation and will flock to our banner when the occasion demands.

I am just one dumb individual but I don't think they will. I think we are kidding ourselves to a point that is ridiculous. If we can't retain the support of France after pulling her out of two wars, and if we must sit by and watch Britain send aid to our enemies after all the American blood we shed to aid John Bull then our present policy seems pretty silly.
I used to console myself with the thought that the bright boys in Washington knew that they knew what they were doing, that they had all the facts and knew the score, so who was I to question, but I have reached a point where I am just not SURE anymore. I get a crazy feeling that the so-called leaders are no smarter than I am and the circles they are going around in are as big if not bigger than mine.

There are books for children among the new ones being mailed and processed for our shelves. The summer run on the juvenile book shelves has begun, and these are helping to meet the rush head-on. Others will be listed, as the paste dries.

From the I CAN READ SERIES (for first and second graders)

Tell Me Some More... Bonnell.
"I know a place." Beginning readers will chuckle over this one, and be reminded to pay another visit to this very special place.

Oliver Huff.
An elephant never forgets, they say. Oliver will always remember the fun he had with the children, and how they helped him to become one of the circus.

BOOKS WITH PICTURES—for older children.
Eric Canal, American Heritage.
The story of a lively era, done in color and sedate etchings, with a running narrative. It is good to have this in print, because the color of the large canal has now gone from the landscape, and imagination and history books, alone, can revive it.

Rainbow Book of Nature. Peattie.
A book to arouse and satisfy curiosity. City child, country child... each will find an interest here.

July 4th Accidents Cost The Nation About $100 Million

Economic loss resulting from July 4 accidents this year will equal the cost of building 200 completely equipped new school capable of providing facilities for 150,000 youngsters, Frederick J. Gassert, Jr., safety director of the Allstate Motor Club predicted today.

"Despite all the warnings, if American motorists are as irresponsible as they were last year during the Fourth of July holiday, they will cost the nation some 500 lives, 25,000 injuries and a property loss of approximately $100 million," Gassert pointed out.

"Most drivers never stop to realize that traffic accidents are as costly as they are tragic. Last year during the Fourth of July holiday U. S. motorists smashed their way to an estimated economic loss of $128 million," Gassert stated.

"The shocking thing about this record loss is that most of it could have been avoided," the Allstate Motor Club safety chief declared.

"The loss was mainly the result of driver negligence and irresponsibility."

"Drivers who display an irresponsible and independent attitude on the road do not belong on the highway this Fourth of July holiday or any other time. It's this type of driver we usually see following too closely, making unsignaled moves, suddenly changing lanes and was a factor in half of last year's Independence Day accidents.
